CRAB ORCHARD.

—Mrs. R. H. Logan left Sunday to visit relatives in Missouri.

—Mr. Grove Kennedy, Jr., is on a visit to old friends in Crab Orchard.

—Rev. William Cuytendall will preach at the Baptist church Wednesday night.

—Mr. W. A. Carson and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of their first son.

—Tim Buchanan, a worthless negro, raised a row up on Plank street, Saturday, and broke Mag Owsley's arm in several places with a chair. It's a pity the town could not get rid of this pest.

—Miss Lorena Hardin died and was buried Thursday. She had la grippe in the early spring, which settled on her lungs, causing consumption. She was of a lovable disposition and will be sadly missed by the entire community as well as by her devoted father and sisters and brother, who gave her every attention that could be possible in hope of restoring her to health, but the summons had come, as it sooner or later will to us all. Miss Alice Hardin is still in a precarious condition.

—Friday night the store of Mrs. D. G. Slaughter & Son, was robbed, the thieves taking about 300 pound of bacon, a quantity of flour and some wearing apparel. They were easily tracked, it having rained the night before and James Slaughter armed with a search warrant and officers, soon had one of the guilty parties under arrest. He then told who his confederates were. John Singleton was the party who was arrested. Part of the stolen goods were found at his home, John Kidd and John Pendleton were the other two, but they have so far not been found. Singleton created quite an excitement Saturday, by trying to get away, but several shots fired at him, soon caused him to surrender.

—Miss Sallie Pettus, of Somerset, and Miss Sallie Campbell, of Paint Lick, are visiting Miss Maud Pettus. Mr. Campbell, of Livingston, visits Crab Orchard quite often of late. Wonder what for? Mr. Hill and Mr. Krutzer, of Louisville, are boarding with Mrs. Holdam and the young ladies in town think they are just to cute for anything. Mr. Krutzer is quite a musician. Miss Laila Hays is a guest of Mrs. Holdam. Miss Anna Evans, of Danville, is visiting Miss Anna Bronaugh. Mrs. Gaines Rice, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. F. W. Dillion, departed for her home in Washington, Saturday. Mr. Mark Hardin and wife are boarding at Mrs. F. W. Dillion's. Miss Nannie Edmiston is visiting friends at Lancaster and Richmond. Miss Hannah McFall has returned from an extended visit to Mrs. Barney Alexander, at New Liberty. Dr. W. S. Beazley, who is now in business at Indianapolis, arrived home Saturday and will spend a few weeks with his parents. Mr. Zach Carson, with his wife and daughter, are visiting Mrs. S. E. Brooks. Mr. W. G. Proctor and family, of Danville, are spending a few weeks with Mr. J. E. Carson at their country home. Mrs. T. M. Warren, of Lebanon Junction, is at her father's, Mr. John Warren.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—Judge T. J. Canniff is seriously ill with rheumatism.

—It is reported that Pal Redmond died at Farris Station Saturday.

—Henry P. Brown has a new boy at his house, which arrived Friday.

—Chris Jackson was acquitted Friday of the charge of assaulting Mollie Hundley.

—The Sunday-school convention here Friday was well attended by people from all over the county.

—Marriage licenses were issued last week as follows: Caleb F. Reams and Mary E. McHargue; Henry Hammock and Millie Broughton; C. C. Garrison and Malva Helton.

—Wm. Green, who was shot by Bob Cooper at the Colony the 4th of July, died Thursday night. A warrant for murder was issued for Cooper and forwarded to the authorities of Pulaski county.

—John Laws, who is well known all over Laurel and who was in the photograph business here for a long time, was accidentally drowned in Tennessee a few weeks ago.

—Dr. T. P. Caldwell has been asked if he would accept the chairmanship of the democratic county committee of Laurel. He will do so and thereby harmonize a difference that may exist in the ranks of the faithful.

—The miners and operators in Laurel county have not all come to an agreement about work yet, but will probably do so this week. Pearl, Thompson & Co., and W. Welsh's works will open up Monday.

—Bob Hyatt, a half witted negro, is in jail here on the charge of interfering with the United States mails. He stopped a mail carrier and attempted to take mail away from him in the eastern part of the county.

—The London Manufacturing Co. have their new building about completed and will be ready for business shortly. J. C. McKee, the manager, has just returned from Chicago, where he bought new machinery.

—Over 200,000 postal cards are issued every day in the U. S.

THE STANFORD FAIR.

Those who predicted that the Stanford Fair would be a failure were right in so much as finances are concerned, but they went wide of the mark otherwise. The attendance was small, particularly on the first day, and as a consequence the association, which gave as liberal premiums as if times had been easy, will lose money, but how much it is not yet known and will not be until the lumber and some other things are disposed of. It is safe however to say that the stockholders will not lose more than $5 or $6 on the $10 share. The show of stock was No. 1, and while there may have been more here at some of the previous fairs, we are certain that it was of no better class. The rings were most all well filled and the roadster rings and stakes were particularly good. Splendid order was kept and if the stockholders are a little behind on account of the enterprise, they have the consolation of knowing that they are the promoters of a fair that was a source of pleasure from beginning to end and of a show of stock second to none. Below is a list of the winners together with the rings and number of entries:

AROUND THE RING.

As a ring marshal Pete Chandler is a howling success.

Hustontville sent a good delegation, but might have sent a larger number. Both Garrard and Boyle did themselves proud.

In the model ring Hudson's Sadie Graves suffered her first defeat in that class. Gay Bros. Highland Denmark did it.

The Bruce brothers (Jim Ed and Mack) worked like Trojans and are not in any way responsible for the fair not being a financial success.

The fancy turnout ring, with premium by INTERIOR JOURNAL, was hotly contested, but the judges decision on Logan Denny was a popular one.

Matt Cohen had a good string and took his share of the premiums. He is a favorite with the officers of the fair here and is always popular with the lookers on.

L. H. Hudson's Sadie Graves went lame and did not show in the stake. As a consequence W. A. Tribble's Kate Malloy had an easier time than was expected.

Commonwealth's Attorney John Sam Owsley, Jr., and Ex-Representative Harvey Helm, assisted by Train Dispatcher Critchlow, tied the strings and otherwise made themselves useful.

Secretary E. C. Walton and his assistant, J. T. Embury, filled their places admirably and won praises all around. They are getting to be old soldiers in the cause, having served several years.

Gay Bros. of Woodford, took in nearly $300 in premiums. Their great stallion, Highland Denmark, again wore the blue in our saddle stallion stake as well as the blue tie in every ring he was shown in.

Pretty girls were there world without end. It would take this whole page to print their names, so as that is out of the question, we will content ourselves by saying that the party, headed by Miss Ellen Owsley, of Lancaster, would take the premium at any show.

Mr. W. A. Tribble's Kate Malloy was as pretty as a picture and was the object of great admiration, especially by his lady friends. She got the blue in every ring she appeared. In fact she is the great unbeaten and unbeatable. Mr. G. W. Coffey, of Orlando, Fla., owns her sire, Bryan, as good a horse as ever left Kentucky and he was present to see the beautiful mare perform.

No one worked harder for the success of the fair than President John Sam Owsley, Sr., and it was remarked on all sides that he was the right man in the right place. In addition to his other efforts, he served dinner on the grounds both days, which was gracefully presided over by his lovely daughters, who made each person feel that he was the honored guest. Such an abundance of lamb, ham, chicken, salads, cake, ices, and other good things, so excellently prepared, is rarely seen. The last day we counted 87 persons enjoying the feast and they represented only a tithe of the number invited and for whom ample preparations had been made. The band and all the others who enjoyed the hospitality of President Owsley unite in expressions of appreciation.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A horse kicked H. S. Shafer, of the Freemyer House, Middleburg, N. Y., on the knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and in two days was able to be around. Mr. Shafer has recommended it to many others and says it is excellent for any kind of a bruise or sprain. The same remedy is also famous for its cures of rheumatism. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford.

Last June Dick Crawford brought his 15 months old child, suffering from infantile diarrhea, to die. It had been weaned at four months old and was sickly everything ran through it like water through a sieve. I gave it the usual treatment on such cases but without benefit. The child kept growing thinner until it weighed but little more than when born, or perhaps a pound. I then started the father to giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Before one bottle of the 25 cent size had been used, a marked improvement was seen and its continued use cured the child. Its weakness and puny constitution disappeared and its father and myself believe the child's life was saved by this Remedy. J. T. Marlow, M. D., Tamarac, Ill. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford.

HUSTONVILLE.

—Several here will take advantage of the cheap rates to Mammoth Cave.

—A crowd stormed Mr. E. R. Powell, Monday night, and tripped the light fantastic till the wee sma' hour.

—As usual, a delegation from this place attended the county fair where hospitality reigned supreme.

—We heartily congratulate Mr. W. D. Weatherford over his success at the fair. "Button" is hard to beat, being a thing of beauty.

—"Trust no future however pleasant" the expression of Longfellow has become a verity since the reduction of the school per capita.

—That Bro. Millican will be called to fill the pulpit at the Baptist church this place is the ardent wish of his many admirers here.

—Prof. Cherry, of Bowling Green, is here in the interest of his normal school at that place. You who contemplate taking a course of this kind should see him or send for catalogue.

—The rarest treat Hustontville has ever had, namely, the concert given by the young ladies of Christian church have been invited to give it again at Stanford, Danville and Lawrenceburg, all of which they appreciate tenfold. Up to this date no decision has been made.

—Mr. D. H. Skinner, a very worthy farmer of Garrard, is here to see his best girl. W. L. Evans is here on similar business. Both young gentlemen are displaying good, yea excellent taste. Miss Louise Culbertson, of Covington, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. J. E. Huffman. Dr. A. S. Price and G. A. Ryan have been with their many friends here.

—Mrs. Jake Robinson, of Lancaster, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tom Robinson. J. B. Cooke spent Sunday at home. Miss Sarah Curtis is here to spend vacation. Mrs. Sallie Shipman visited friends in Stanford last week. Mrs. Cornelia Wright, and grand daughter, Blanche, of Calera, Ala., are visiting the family of Squire L. B. Adams. Miss Williams, of Harrodsburg, is visiting the family of Dr. J. T. Bohon. George Bradley, of Ala., is visiting his mother. Mrs. J. B. Don't forget Jess Cook's picnic at Green Briar next Saturday. It is the last and best of the season. The excursion from Junction City to Mammoth Cave to-day promises to be a large one. A number will go from here. LUMBER FOR SALE.—The lumber in the amphitheatre at the fair grounds is for sale privately. Call on or write to I. M. Bruce at once. Please come and pay your account. The money is due and I need it. Don't postpone, but come at once. H. C. Ruple, the Tailor. The C. & O. will run an excursion from Lexington to Old Point Thursday at $13 for the round trip. Tickets good for 15 days. Several will go from here. If you want your watch or any jewelry repaired, take it to Penny's. Mr. Deckelman does the work well and promptly; never disappoints a customer. FOUND, on the Danville pike, a horse blanket, curry comb, brush, &c. Pay for this notice and small reward and get them at the INTERIOR JOURNAL office: Allen Hansford. HOWARD TATE, who was in jail here for safe keeping, charged with the murder of Andy Johnson, the mountain terror, was acquitted at Pineville Friday, the jury being out less than 20 minutes. The elements wreaked their fury on the Holiness camp meeting at Wilmore. The large tent was blown down and much damage done generally. One lady had her leg broken and others were injured. The destruction in the region roundabout was also great. The colored Baptists held a big Sunday-school meeting at the court-house Sunday, which was largely attended. A number of noted preachers were present. The bell for the meeting, which rang at 11:30, startled the congregations in the white churches, who thought it was a fire alarm, and nearly stampeded the one at the Methodist church. These good people never fail to show their fear of fire, both in this world and that which is to come. The effort of Judge T. L. Shelton to have the council of Rowland rescind the license granted P. W. Green to sell liquors there, proved abortive. He claimed that under Judge Sautley's decision and the unrevoked laws of the town that only hotel keepers could be granted the privilege of retailing liquors, and that the council had no right to grant Green, coffee house license. Cols. W. O. Bradley and W. H. Miller argued the question for Shelton and Col. Welch for Green, after which the council announced that it would stand by its action. A large number of anti-saloon men were present. Those who attended, and most of the 100 who were invited did so, the delightful party given by Miss Essie Burch and W. S. Burch at their new home on Danville Avenue, Friday night, felt that the happy thought of giving it must have come by inspiration. Their mother, Mrs. Judge Stephen Burch, not only raised no objection to the use of the unfinished building, but entered heartily in the spirit of the suggestion and did all in her power to make the occasion a memorable one. The floors of the large building were down in most of the rooms, but they were not all weather-boarded and none of them plastered, but that made it all the cooler and more pleasant, and the novelty was much enjoyed. The rooms were decorated with bunting and other beautifiers and brilliant lights have rarely shown over a happier party or lovelier collection of feminine beauty. Lige Farmer's Mandolin Club furnished the music for the dancers, cards and tete-a-tete were enjoyed by those who did not and everybody was happy. Watermelons were served at midnight and an hour or two later the participants dispersed with general regret after heartfelt thanks to those who had contributed so liberally to their enjoyment. Miss Jennie Warren, the little queen of entertainers, assisted Miss Burch, who is herself so fait in such matters, and her charming guests, Misses Jean, Maggie and Eva Buchanan, contributed their full quota to the evening's enjoyment.

New silver belts at Danks, the jeweler. TURNIP.—Little Charley Wright has left at this office a 2 1/2-pound turnip of his own raising. Boast it and take it. The fellow who got the editor's hat at the party the other night had better return it. The old thing he left is four sizes too large for anybody. We are now doing a strictly 30-day business and those who can not comply with our terms will either have to pay cash or be refused. We mean what we say. Yeager & Yeager, Liverymen. DURING the three days of the Richmond Fair, which begins to-day, the K. C. will run a special train, leaving Rowland at 7:35 A. M. and returning after the races, at one fare for the round trip. THE Advocate hears that Tommy Ball is dead from his wound, but we are glad to assure it that it will take more than an ordinary ball from an ordinary Boyle county man to kill the great and only Tommy. CONSTABLE BENEDICT lodged in jail Saturday, Abe and Jim Jones, the former charged with maliciously cutting Wm. Rice and the latter with striking Laura Lunsford and Mannie Rice. They will have their examining trials here to-day. The total gate receipts of the Fair were but $764. About 30 of the subscribers to the stock have not paid, although notified. The list of those who continue to fail to do so will be published in this paper. Call on W. F. McClary and settle. THE INTERIOR JOURNAL has ever advocated everything that it thought would advance the interest of any legitimate and praiseworthy enterprise and its editor has always contributed liberally of his means to assist in the success of such. But we are going to draw the line on fairs hereafter, unless a permanent and proper place is secured for the exhibition. The location this year was the worst possible, being the hottest and most shadeless in the section. It was too far from town and the arrangements were the laughing stock of the visitors. The amphitheatre was small and was so constructed that it was neither proof against sunshine or rain. The grounds were selected for the benefit of the bicycle races, but with one or two exceptions they were dull, dreary and disappointing. We do not say these things in a caviling spirit, but with the hope of stirring up a feeling for making better preparations if we are to have a fair here every year. If it is to become permanent let us buy grounds and fix them up decently so as to please and not be the subject of ridicule by our guests. To this end we will be one of 10 to give $100 or $200 and are ready to sign an obligation at any time. Miss ANNE SHANKS is entitled to the plaudits of the people, who filled the Opera House, Thursday night, for contributing so greatly to their entertainment. The declamatory contest, to which she devoted so much labor and time, was of a very high order of merit, the speakers doing honor to their accomplished teacher, and winning encomiums for themselves and her. The occasion was also a great success financially as it was artistically, the net receipts being about $100, which Miss Shanks will devote to improving the internal appearance of the Christian church. After the speakers had marched to the stage, which was handsomely decorated, Miss Alice Holmes sang the Magnetic Waltz Song in a most magnetic way, and made herself a greater favorite than ever. Then the contest began with Mr. Richard Hocker, who declaimed "The Roman Sentinel;" Sam Embry, "The Criminality of Dueling;" Thomas H. Shanks, "The Chariot Race;" Logan Hughes, "The Murderer;" Ashby Warren, "One Niche the Highest;" and Richard Bush, "The Maid of Orleans." Where all did so well it is difficult to particularize and the audience seemed as much divided as the judges were, if the long time it took them to present their decision is to be taken as indicative of it. They were Revs. W. E. Ellis, W. E. Arnold and P. M. McRoberts, Esq., and when finally Mr. Ellis presented the medal to Mr. Logan Hughes there was some disappointment depicted on the faces of the partisans of each speaker, which gave away in general gratification that a difficult task had been so conscientiously discharged. The contestants warmly congratulated the victor, while enthusiastic boys caught him on their shoulders and bore him triumphantly from the stage. Many thought Mr. Shanks should have been given the medal and we learn he did come within an i of a vote of it. By special request Miss Shanks, who was far from being well, obligingly recited a selection "The Old Man Dreams," and added much to her reputation as an elocutionist. During the evening, the Stanford Orchestra discoursed some excellent music and that pretty little vocalist, Miss Nora Moreland sang a pretty solo in her usually sweet manner. Mr. Tilden Cook also sang a solo "I am King O'er Land and Sea," which so pleased the audience that he was forced to repeat it. Mrs. Maggie Portman played the accompaniments and drilled the vocalists, which accounts for the excellence. The entire program was greatly enjoyed and Miss Shanks can have the satisfaction of feeling that her efforts are sincerely appreciated. Mr. W. H. Shanks deserves mention for the graceful manner he presided over the contest.

We have just bought an elegant assortment of new goods. We are selling them at astonishingly low prices. Call and see the selection at Danks, the jeweler. We have application for the lease of a farm of 200 to 400 acres, also for lease of farm of 150 acres and for purchase of farm of 50 acres, $2,000 to $2,500. Miller & Helm. DROPPED DEAD.—Mr. W. G. McKinney, who was on the train, saw ex-Postmaster Wathen, of Lebanon, drop dead of heart disease while en route from New Hope to Lebanon. TEN prisoners were lodged in jail Saturday, among them George Toms, who was brought here by Constable J. A. Shannon to serve 35 days for carrying concealed weapons. It rains sufficiently here to keep the farmers in hope and to show that the supply is not entirely exhausted, but the fall is far from being what is needed. The weather has been pleasant, but the signal service says it will be warmer Tuesday and fair. FINDING that they will not have sufficient room to store the wheat they intend buying this season, J. H. Baughman & Son have contracted with John Blankenship to build a couple of stories on the shed that connects the mill and elevator. This will give them 2,400 square feet of additional room. The negro, Ike Logan, charged with being up the tree in which Mr. W. E. Amon's chickens roost and shooting at that gentleman, when he went out to see what was the matter, was held yesterday in $200 bond to the circuit court. His wounds are still painful. The six other negroes, arrested and jailed as his accomplices, were promptly acquitted. —Robert J's. mile in 2:07 is the fastest so far. —Allerton stepped a quarter in 31 seconds the other day.
